The Clarksville Chronicle.

Printed Weekly on a double-medium sheet ever Friday morning, at $2 Per annum, in advance.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. POROME SQUARE OF TWELVE LINES OR LESS. $1,011 Two months $4,50 50 Three months

The Clarksville Publishing Company Chartered by the Legislature of Tennes

2,50 | Twolve months

J. A. WAGGENER & CO Wholesale and Retail Dealers in CHINA, GLAS AND QUEENSWARE, Silver Ware, Fine Table Cuttery, Lonking

Glasses, Lamps, Work Buskets, Clocks, Cedar and Willow Ware, Children's Cabs, Notions, de, &c. No. 4 Pranklin St . CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

37 Country Merchants would do well to gall and examine our stock, as we can est them as good bargeins as they can buy in the West.

502ACRES

Christian County Farm For Sale. I will on Saturday the 5th day of September styles and prices, all whe att, on the premises, offer for sale at public and careful examination of it. tion, my Farm. in Christian county, Kv., one mile south west from Gorrettsburg, one mile no th west from Nosh Spring, 3 miles cant of Enfayette, 15 miles south of Hopkinsville, and 16 miles from Clarksville, Fenn. 7 hereto ore known as the GHOLSON PLACE.

Containing 50214 acres of such uniform for tility as to produce 15 hundred pounds of tobac-co, from 25 to 30 bushels of wheat, and from ten to twelve burre's of corn to the more. Just undu latting enough to drain itself, its depth of soil renders its fertilizing qualities perfectly inexhausti-ble. Two hundred and fifty acres of this land is eleared and nuder a fine fence, the rist is well to full of the native forest trees, is an excellent MONDAY, THE 14th SEPTEMBER. and never felling well, out flowers, all good, par-sicularly the tobacco barne, 7 in number, one in next 48 fine Mules, and some Waggons and Harfine shed barn, capable of howing 20 hogshauds of LOCATION. The location is healthy, in one of the finest othoods in the State, distinguished for the bottom land, about 200 screwin cultivation. This eld fashioned sociability and high moral tone of is inhabitants, within eight miles of one fine in Toursesee. It has an abundance of fine manufacturing flour mili, and five of another -- mountain onk for tan bark. The tand lies between Any one wishing to purchase a permanent home the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers, and exon to look at thi farin.

TERMS made known on day sale.

NOTICE!

Ou the 1st Monday in September, 1857, I will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at the court Tools, Carts, Wagens, Axes, &c., &. house door in Charleville, the entire interest in a in said city of Clarksville, known as the lot of Samuel Rob ris, dec d, adjusting the the personal property on a credit of 4 or 6 months, incredy successful, will make no mere call lots formerly owned by W. F. Gray dec d, on the with notes in bank for all sums over $10 -- for culations upon mere party advantage. south, and G A. Davis, der'd, on the north, and smaller sums cas's well be required. fronting on the public square-the Interest of L. P. Roberts in the above described lot. Sold to tained on the lond till the purchase money is satisfy a balance of debt in favor of Libley & paid.

Clark.

T. RAIMEY, Sheriff.

Aug. 7 '57-ms for 21 10. Aug. 7. '57-pra fee $1 60

IN CHANCERY AT CLARKSVILLE. Patrick Wade vs. W. H. Shuman, Andrew Ware and Clarksville, Louisville and Mamphis R. R. Co. From the allegations in the bill and affidavit riot, and Louisville Journal, insert 30 days and thereto, it appears to the satisfiction of the Clerk the account with the Clerk & Mister at Nashand Master that Andrew Ware, one of the d fend ville ante, is a non-resident of the State of Tenna see so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him. It is therefore ordered that pub lientlen be made for four increasive weeks in the Clarksville Chronicle, a newspaper published in heautiful and highly impraved Treet of Land of Clarksville, requiring said defendant Ware to ap- EIGHT HUNDRED AND FIFTY ACRES, held at Chark-ville, Tenn., on the 3d Montay of October next, and plead, answer or denour to comfessed us to him and set for hearing ex inste-

T. J. MUNFORL, C. & M. Aug. 14, '57-5w-pr f n $3 CHANCERY SALE.

Ross Morris vs. the heirs of Nathan Morris. Jr. Mills, 1 the distance of from one to four adles. In pursuates of an order made in this cause, at The find ties in the form of a parallelogram, its the April term 1857, of the Chancery court at sides running North, South, East and West, and Clarksville, I will soil, to the highest binder, on from 1's rectangular form the procrietor has been Monday the 14th day of Scotember next, at the embled, in the averagement of all lots, fields, &c. court-house in Clarksville, the Fract of Landon to a lept the highly advantageous plan of having the pleadings meationed, which dont his about all the divisions laid off, with little exception, in 255 acres. This is a good tract of limit, lying on parallel lines; adding greatly to the neatness and 255 acres. This is a good tract of the Sandyllating success of cromping, Cumberland rives, in sid district No. S. adjuining success of cromping, arranged for the form is finely arranged for the lands of Hemy Horn and others, and is sold for division. Ross Morris will show the land, TERMs-12 outlis credit, note with good a curity and a lien retained for the purchase money.

THOS J. MUNFORD, C. & M. Aug. 14, *57-5w-Pr's for $4 80. IN CHANCERY AT CLARKSVILLE.

C. A. Rose vs. J. T. Marable et alg. From the allegations in the bill fited 'n this cause, and affidavit thereto, it appears to the satisfaction of the Clerk and Moster, that the defend-Yurbrough and John W . Gleggett are non-residents of the State of Tonnes-e .. so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon

It is therefore ordered that publication be made, for 4 successive weeks, in the Clarksville Chronicle, a newspaper published to Chickey dis, rech . nts to appear at the next te m of the Chancery court to be held at Clarksville, Ton on the 3rd Monday of October next, or the same will be taken for confessed as to them and set for hearing exparts. T. J. MUNI ORD, C. & M.

Aug. 14, '57-1w-pr fee $3 00

NOTICE.

I wish to obtain the a dress of Mr. Alfred Dan cto, who moved from Pluots about two year since, and settled near the Kentucky, State time the neighborhood of the trous Warks; in Ma gomery County, Penn. Should this notice me he eye of Mr Dancau, or any of his negestauces, he or they will confer a favor upon the undersigned by addressing him forthwith, as h has some matters of great importance to commumeate to Mr. Duncan.
SOLOMON MedicalD.

Friar's Point, Conhoma County, Miss-July 7, 157-19

No. 49 PUBLIC SQUARE, NASHVILLE,

IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN

POREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

Morgan & Co.

IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

STAPLE AND PANCY DRY GOODS

We have the pleasure of informing our customere and the trade generally, that we are now daily receiving and opening our naual Fall' took.

which will be ready for exhibition by the 20th i est We invite the attention of the trade to the ex-long experience and the facilities we copy, we have succeeded in bringing out an assortment of goods which cannot fall to please, as regards styles and prices, all who may favor us with a

LARGE

IRON WORKS.

And other personal property

FOR SALE.

tends to each river and has fine woodvard privileges, and all the wood can be readily sold to has a fine Furnace, with all the necessary fixtures

I will also sell at the same time-Blacksmith

The real on ate to be said on a credit of 1, 2, and 3 years (after a small cash payment)-and securities required on the notes, and a lim re-

I have two likely young nerro men and a val

Nashville Union & American, Nashville Pat-

Land for Sale!

in Mentgomery County, Tenn , situsted imme to Honkingville. This tract is beautifully situated, lies for the most part level, or gradually undu-latting, and is well adapted to the culture of the culture of the country, particularly of Wheat, and is configuous to six good Figuring

RAISING STOOK.

400 acres being cleared and under good staked and r derec fonce, and the balance well timbered, hav-ing in the central part of the plantation a large never failing poud, to which access is had from gard to buildings, are very good; the dwelling rants 51 feet, two stories, with a passage and six reds for various kluds of stock, &c. There is rooms with firsplaces, beside has ment rooms -All other buildings are good and ample, such as a well of never falling wat r with a pumpr several orchards of penches and apples, and a ganten of an acround a half, hamisomely hid off into squares ud side body accommanded with flowers, shrubbory,

Sc. The subs 11 or confolintly believes that his form would please any silentific agriculturat, be-high and healthy location and the superiority of

I.P.N. B .- The hand could be a vided into two good and convenient farms.

Hop. Mercury copy and month and forward count to me at Ring and, Team.

I am prepared to deliver, at short notice. Extra

Extra Flour-Best Brands.

Aug. 14, 57-1m

JOSEPH M. FAUNTLESOY.

Brick building, on the Whartately on the little west fork of Red river, about a miles from town of Clarksville, and about a luable woman, to sell privately. Call soon about a furnace

Aug. 14, 1857-tds

In addition to these advantages it

BY virtue of a decree rendered in the Chan-

Nashville, Aug. 14, '57

No. 49, Public Square, NASHVILLE.

1857.

POETRY. (For the Chronicle,

TO MISS NANNIE W. Mc-How few that love us have we found! How wide the world that girds them round Like monutain-streems we meet and part, Each living in the others beart; Our course nuknown, our hope to be Yet mingled in the distant sea. Do But ocean coils and heaves in vain, Bound in the subtle moonbeams chain, And love and hope do but obey ... Some cold capricious planet's ray, Which lights and leads the tide it charms To death's dark caves and icy arms.

Alas! one parrow line is drawn, That links our sunset with our dawn. In mist and shade life's morning rose, And clouds are round it at its cluse. But ah! no twilight beam ascends To whisper where that evening ends.

Of in the hour when I shall feel Those shadows round my senses steal; When gentle eyes are weeping o'er The clay that feels their tears no more, Then let thy spirit with me be, Or some sweet angel likest thee.

Nasnyille, August, 1857

MISCELLANY.

[From the New York Express.] ACT UPON PRINCIPLE.

weaker than the Republicans, they wish the Church. to know the proper coarse of action for future time. There can be but one correct care Court at Nu heille in the suit of Ledbetter up a party and to maintain its principles, and Bostck vs Jua, S. & C. D. Bien and others, and that correct rule is to stand by your I will self at public suction on the Public Squard and that correct rule is to stand by your principles and by one another, just as long as there is opportunity of successful labor. To those who love preferment more than principle, and place more than honor, no hex'. I will sell at Iron Mountain Furnace, in Stewart County, the said Furnace and Lands— argument can be addressed of sufficient what the "point of order" might be.

place could be made one of the finest Stock Farms right direction. However proper and natural it is to be anxious about the future, the present is of quite as much importance. The acts of an individual are to the person himself of the first importance. The man who thinks before he acts, and whose associates de-

We take for granted, therefore, that fore the country at this time requiring that we are almost one!" them to select between a choice of evils. They have nothing to gain by going to the almost up. 'Love laughs at locksmiths:' one side or to the other, but everthing to almost up. 'Love laughs and there's no help for it." lessly and independently. Recent events at Albany, New York, more than ever have The sub-criter offers to sell, at private sale, his taught us to appreciate the correctness of our position, and at least to indulge in the lenged a lion to single combat. hope that no man will desert his clors because he is in a minority.

When the Democratic party or the Re- "How," said the skunk, "are you apublican party, nominate men for office fraid?" who believe in the American Platform of "Very much so," quoth the lion, "for ved furiously. Husband swore and pre- latter, and advised that Missouri lands be principles, and whose lives have been in you would only gain fame by having the sented pistols; lady fainted and put on a taken, Mr. Slidell replied, "buy in Illiaccordance with their professions, there honor to fight a lion, while every one who wrapper; young man trembled and asked nois." Mr. Toombs (U. S. Senator) comes may be some reason for listening to pro- met me for a month to come, would know for life. Husband relented, and would all the way from Georgia to buy lands in posals of association and union. It is the that I had been in company with a skunk!" keep quiet for $3,000; young man gained, Minnesota and Wisconsin; Col. Orr(mempresent policy of each of these parties to misrepresent, to weaken and extinguish the American organization. We fear the neighbor, compassionately "you have shut $1,000 and paid $300 in cash, and then inridge (Vice President) from Kentucky Greeks, and dread their gifts.

several times, and repulsed his attentions on the boat. At Carrolton, Ky., the young lady took advantage of an hour's delay of the boat to go ashore with her aunt and growth" act out the rule of contraries .see the town. In returning on board she fell into the river. Her ill treated suitor nor hold the candle." plunged in and rescued her. That evening the passengers on the boat assembled to see the Rev. B. C. Snodgrass, of St. for himself, said,-Louis, unite the lady to her devoted lever.

A country clergyman who was in the liabit of preaching almost to copty benches, during one of his sermons observed a flock cam I to 1 f 00 harrels to suit purchusers, at rea remarked,— they sent their rep Wintatives!

ARCHBISHOP HUGHES

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1857.

pleasure of the supreme authorities of -Breakfast Table Remark or by the appointment of administrators up' till the stars grow tired of watching, of the diocese, under the pretence of re- and the roosters begin to crow to lieving the Ayelibishop from the temporal There is a sort of fascination in it, a cares that press upon him. The Times positive denial to the contrary notwithgives the following as the amount of the stan ing. An indescribable, undeniable charge against the Archbishop:

say there is not, a monument of Catholic pleasing in hearing the last pair of house bost whose influence has invited the at- until one of the party cornered, choose to tention and alarmed the jealousy of the open it; , at A GENETORY Protestant people of these States. Every- Talk of courting by daylight! Think where else they say the Church is an or. of laming one's arm by quick, hasty with ganization with a policy, with a great drawals from around a certain waist at the framework of institution to be filled up as incessant ringing of the door bell, or seetime shall afford the means. Here, it is ing the puff combs and curls fly in every age. said by members of the Church it is a direction, by a sound of coming footsteps.

WIND AND WATER POWER.-A windy ness of her daughter's lips.

when up started Sheridan, - d ditted A order for a windmill to go by water!" heightened, of course, by the House being for courting.

what's the time of day, now?" Americans will stand by their principles, coolly looking at his gold repeater, it is no one on earth so near Susie as yourself! chased therewith, as well as the jewels preand by one another. There is nothing be- about half-past twelve. And now you see - Margaret Verno.

That was one of the (few) sensible guar-

BAD COMPANY .- A skunk once chal-

The lion politely declined the honor of such a meeting.

the child out."

Hence the saying-"He'll neither dance

A man was tried in Boston for stealing "I have nothing to say in particular .-

lowance for temporary insanity.

"I don't see why people cannot do their The New York Times says that Arch courting by daylight, thereby saying an bishop Hughes has fallen under the dis- expense of lights, fuel, and forenoon naps, Rome, and there is danger that he may be Whew | preach that doctrine until your hair virtually suspended by the appointment of is grey, and you are as toothless as a new a conjugator with the right of succession, born babe, and still young folks will "set charm-charm in being the sole occupant "In a city through which three millions of a front parlor, with nothing to molest of Catholics have entered since he has had or make afraid; the sofa drawn up before charge of the Diocese of New York-in the shining grate, and the lamp regulated a city which numbers more professors of to a steady blaze that will not occuse the the faith than Rome itself-his accusers brightness of eyes, or made particularly power of influence, not an institution per- hold feet take a bee line departure for the fected; and that he alone has seemed up, upper chambers, and feeling that the ever conscious of the movement of that living swinging parlor, door will remain closed rule of action for men who unite to build Member of Parliament, in a tedious ora- And then what time in the day could part, he called upon his intended to see there! Go away," He made a swift escape, tion, stopped in the midst of his harangue one take? Not in the forenoon, certainly, how she was getting along. She received and the breath of the spectators pent up to "wet his whistle" with a glass of water, when music teachers and fashionable callers are in vogue; not in the afternoon, the wedding—and finally gave him to un- ter at this ludicrous incident. "I rise, sir," said he, "to a point of when one's senses are stapefied by the eat. derstand, in a manner which he could not Every one gazed in conjecture as to when everybody is expected to go to church mind, and wouldn't marry him, notwith. Maysville, Ky., who had made some rather not in church, with pontomimic gestures standing dame Fortune's command, and valuable presents to a married lady, was about 1,000 acres fine weight to influence their conduct in the "I think sir," said the wit, "it is out of that set the occupants of neighboring pews the complicated state of the case between severely cowhided by her husband. The in a titter; Night is the veritable season them in regard to the money, jewelry, etc. husband was brougt before the court for The crater looked daggers at Sherry, set in old primitive day-a time and season She had undergone one of those reverses assault and battery. Eight of the jurors fingers to make her tell who she loves, in the Spaniard talking to her about mar- larger. No verdict was rendered .- Louis-TAKEN BY SURPRISE .- "Hallo!" ejacu- best; look in Susie's hand to see if her riage. The discarded lover did not shoot ville Jour. lated an anxious guardian to his lovely fortune runs with yours, and see what let. or drown himself, but went straightway niece, as he entered the parlor and saw ter of the alphabet is formed therein; and and entered legal proceedings against her. mand what is right before that which is her on the sofa in the arms of a swain who kiss her when you please; hug her when He was making his preparations on Saturmerely successful, will make no mere cal- had just popped the question,-"hallo! you please; and all this when the old folks are sleeping, when the sound of footsteps "I should think," quoth the swain, are scattering in the streets, and there is money used by her, or the articles pur-

Wednesday last, met a young, fashionable of his just demand. and very pretty married lady, and after house next morning when her husband the following: would be "down town." The engagement. When the agent of Mr. Slidell (U. confidence, and proposed $1,300; husband ber of Congress) from South Carolina to INS AND OUTS .- "Poor thing," said a consented; young man gave check for purchase in Iowa and Nebraska; Mr. Breck and were set free-both giving a release ting to $160,000. Quite a number of "children of a larger for all damages to wounded honor, etc.

a horse, and on being called upon to speak Philadelphia are charged by the Times of better, and conform better to profession, The fact is, when I get half or two-thirds grains, Troy. Some of them fall short as is everywhere needed throughout the South, out the substance. drunk, I think everything belongs to me. much as four grains, which, on one hund- to develope our resources and render us This is not at all unlikely -- a drunken red dollars, would amount to about five independent of the North, but our Demo- to attempt to hedge about moral principles the property of the same paper sug- gratic leaders with all their pretended with political enactments! The same paper sug- gratic leaders with all their pretended with political enactments! They can no when in liquor, used to swagger with his gosts that a similar process in the gold and love of the South-profer to invest in the more exist together than oil can m'r with "That his district was not so much at pockets full of coppers, and nothing could silver coinage is within the range of possi- free States? What inducement is there, water. Yet this has been attempted in all fault as he expected, for he had occular persuade him but that it was all silver billip. We can hardly suppose any regular for business men of moderate means to re- civilized countries for ages past and TO WHISKEY BUYERS -I don't sell Whistory now nor have I said any since the 15th of demonstration before him that when they coin, and how rich he was! The law, the character of the officers o April let, other camy own account or ou come were not inclined to attend themselves, however, in its unholy state, makes no at tution, the fraud is too readily discovern- send their money abroad for investment?— than its predecessor. Cannot this fact. ble. Balt. Amer.

THE MILLINER AND THE SPANIE TARD A ROMANCE.

The New Orleans exchange papers are full of a singular piece of remance that is the following scene at the close of Miss now on the tapis in that city. The particulars are as follows:

A young millinengirl, with whose charm a young Spaniard had become smitten. was presented by him with a ticket in the Hayana Lettery, on the condition that if it drew a prize they should share the money and get married. The girl smilingly and her nose appear to sharpen, as it is consented to the arrangement, and the amorous Spaniard left, and To tentione The next arrival from Havana after that, brought the drawing of the lottery; and what was the astonishment and delight of the pretty milliner and her beau tofind that the three-eighths, held between them were of the number which drew the capital prize, and poured at their feet, as if by magic, the pleasing little pinch of $18,750. (less the discount in cashing.) The young man lost no time in coming to an understanding with his sweetheart. He held her to her bargain; she held to it also; and, in an ecstacy of happiness, the lover set. about making preparations for the marri-

A fine house on Bienville street-wheth choas, without form and void. Not even Imagine proud lover at the feet of fair la- er purchased or rented we did not learnan architectural structre worthy of a power- dy puffing forth an eloquent, long avowal was procured, and fitted up sumptuously Justice Clerk had one lad, whom he had ful and wealthy community—not a well withextraordinary expressions flitting over for the coming nuptials, and the honey- observed ruffing stoutly, taken into custedy, A good many of our American friends organized charity not an institution of the face; and, at the same moment, a puz. moon was to follow. The bride (that was and after the prisoner had retired he was warmly attached the principles of the A. learning that commands respect, and that zled little countenance peering through to have been) made a lavish use of the ordered to be brought before the court. merican party, are manifesting a good deal can point to His Grace as its founder or the folding doors, wondering what makes money placed at her command, provided He appeared to be in a most terror stricken of natural anxiey about the future. Not sustainer. His, they say, has been the Mr. M --- 'pray with his eyes wide open !" herself with a wardrobe rich enough for a condition. The Lord Justice Clerk, after so strong, numerically, as the Democrats ambition and politics of an Alderman, Or, more disagreeable still, have "mamma" queen, and made other preparations for viewing him through his glasses, said were the last autumn, and considerably and not the statesmanship of a prelate of open the door, without the prelude of a the coming event; whilst the bridegroom usir, the Court has ordered you to be rap, of course, just at the moment you have (that was to have been) in his cestacy, pre- brought to the bar, but on looking at you ventured to test the temperature and sweet. sented her with a case of jewelry worth you appear so foolish and silly a fellow $2,500. Everything being ready on his that we consider you are not fit to stand ing of a hearty dinner; not on Sundays misunderstand, that she had changed her Last week a Roman Catholic priest of of feeling which are so common in sudden were in favor of fining him one cent, and An hour, when you can pinch Susie's accessions to fortune; and there was no use the other four were for making the fine day to institute a suit at law against his faithless fair one, for the recovery of the sented by himself, and what loose change

> EASTERN FASHIONS .- A young and ve- the tenacity of a Shylock, upon the young ry rich man, while taking a walk in the lady's fulfilment of the bond to the very suburban village of Cleveland, Ohio, on letter | else not one picayune will he abate chatting very pleasantly with her, received WHAT DOES IT MEAN?-The Chicago

she might have besides. He insists, with and accepted an invitation to call at her (Illinois) Free Press, of the 26th ult., has was kept-the lady was fascinating, char- Senator from Louisiann) wrote him the ming, seductive; the young man was fasci- other day that he could buy lands in Misnated, charmed, seduced., But in the midst souri of equal fertility with those of Illi of their joy the husband broke in and ra- nois for about one-fourth the price of the departed. He told his friends; they were to Superior City and the beautiful cluster of "It's all the same to him," said the indignant, and at length got outawarrant, islands in the Lake of the same name ROMANTIC .- A pleasant affair occurred mother; "he would cry if I called him in An officer went off to look for the injured known as the Apostle Islands. Mr. Dougon the boat Tennessee Belle, last week, on and then shut the door. It's a peculiari- husband and faithless wife. He found loss (U.S. Senator) gigantic speculations had been courting a lady who had $45,000 ty of that boy, that if he is left rather them shopping, having already obtained are confined mainly to Chicago. It was suddenly on either side of a door, he con- the money on the check. He carried them only a day or two ago that we chronicled in her own right. She had refused him siders himself shut out and rebels accord- to jail. They got afraid, paid back $1,250 a single purchase of his in this city amoun-

We submit, says the Hinds County (Miss. Moral-Cet a wife of your own, and "Gazette," if we may not with reason enkeep away from wives of other men sup- quire what all this means—this rush on the part of our prominent Democratic pol-ALLEGED FRAUDS AT THE PHILADEL- iticians to purchase land in free States? should never be forgotten. But when PHIA MINT.—The officers of the Mini at But, aside from this, would it not look political hucksters use it to affit their own that city with making new cents of de- for these prominent gentlemen to invest by teaching the people to fall down and ficiontwright. The standard is seventy-two their money in Southern States? Capital worship a political Dagou - a shadow with-Atlanta American.

TRAORDY And CONFUY .- A correspon dent of the Settish American Journal-a new weekly published in this city, describes Smith's trial:

After the jury had retired for the verdict. Miss Smith looked almost as calm'as usual. but it was evidently costing her a dreadful effort. She looked coolest individual in the court, which was fervid with excitemont; but I could notice her eve beating said to do in the hour of death. The jind matron sat beside her in great agitation .-Mr. Ranken, one of her agents, a benevolent-looing old man, drew his chair to the bar in front of her, and sat there waiting the twenty minutes of suspense for the return for the jury. The instant the favorable import of the verdict was heard, he shook her right hand and the jail matron her left. She smiled brightly for an instant, and resumed her former look of resplution, our sections low new antibut

The cheering of the assembled crowd was loud and long, in spite of the cautions of the judge and the efforts of the officers; and it was caught up and continued along the passages of the court house and without the walls. It was the ebuilition of s joy not very rational, though there are few sorry that Mimi has escaped. The Lord

Coachman to Housemaid:- "I think I shall leave this family, Mary de writte o'n' Housemaid-"Why John?" an amount at Coachman-"Aw, well, Mary, you see they don't suit my style, -they haven got no marriageable daughters in the family."

A poor emaciated Irishman, having called in a physician in a kind of forlors hope, the latter spread a huge mustard plaster and clapped it upon the poor customer's breast.

Paddy, with a tearful eye, looking down upon it, said,-"Doctor, doctor, dear, it strikes me that it's a deal of musthard for so little mate!" COQUETRY-MASCULINE .- If you wish to be a favorite with the gals generally, attend to their wants, that is,-Give them rides-candy-raisins-nuts -and such other delicate trifles. Gals like trifles. You should help them crack the nuts occasionally. Talk and laugh about love affairs. The laughing should be somewhat loud-not exactly like the braying of a donkey, for that would be rather beyond the mark. Keep on the off-side-that is, dont commit yourself to any one in particular,-

And what then? Why, you will be liouized to your heart's content, till you become an old bachelor, and then-you will generally be despised, as you ought to be. Humph! who would be an eld bachelor? - Materials

To keep alive the sacred flame of freedom by repeatedly bringing it before our people, and the obligations we owe to our brave and heroic ancestors for handing it down to us unimpaired, is all right and base purposes, they only smother the flame open the eyes of reasonable men?